

Kingdom Vision

School Of Ministry

Education, Impartation, Activation

Course Catalog 2020-2021

Mission Statement

The mission of Kingdom Vision School of Ministry is to raise up sons and daughters who are prepared to spread revival across the nation. We aspire to do this in three methods. Education, Impartation, and Activation.

Theological & Ministry Training

This School of Ministry with spirit-filled staff offers aggressive ministry training for thorough equipping of Christian Leadership. We emphasize balanced doctrine, servanthood, leadership, character development and developing a biblical global perspective.

KVSOM is a place to train men and women called to ministry and those interested in becoming better equipped to serve their local church.

We offer academic excellence and methods that will train you to maximize your leadership skills and attitude to reach your Kingdom Vision.

Accountability

We are a non-denominational, Bible-based, spirit-filled school. Our School is accountable to a Board of Directors, Our Bishop's Board at 4TRUTH Ministries, INC, and to Our Local Church.

Our Core Values

- Serving the King
- Honor
- Awakenning the Nations
- Releasing Sons and Daughters
- Preparing for Excellence
- Encountering God's Glory
- Networking in the Kingdom

Life Management 2 – Achieving Destiny. This study focuses on managing the resources of one's life to achieve one's destiny. It includes goal setting, organization, and time and money management.

Life Management 3 – Work and Destiny. This study focuses on how our life's work or career can lead to living a life of significance, glorifying God and fulfilling God's agenda or eternal purpose.

Social Roles/Relationships. A study exploring our relationships with God, government, parents and peers with a special emphasis on cultivating friendship relationships, dating, courtship and marriage.

Family Issues. A survey of family relationships, roles and responsibilities from a biblical viewpoint including marriage, divorce, parenting, grand-parenting, blended families and the ministry of the family.

Theology of Worship. Building on theological, biblical and historical foundations, students will explore both the function and framework of Christian worship as it is lived out in a particular context. Students will be equipped to reflect theologically on the scope, shape and practices of worship and apply that as a foundation for shaping and being shaped by the ministry of word and sacrament in the context of the community gathered and the community sent.

Knowing God's Voice. This course explains how God speaks to man and how to find God's will for your life. Guidelines are given on knowing the voice of God and determining His will. The pattern of God's will and Scriptural examples of how God reveals His will are discussed.

Women a Biblical Profile. This course summarizes all the Bible teaches regarding women. It is not only a study guide, but a reference tool as it lists all the passages about women and references to all the individual women mentioned in the Word of God.

Evangelism. A study designed to equip the believer with tools needed to become more effective in communicating the Gospel and building bridges to those who do not know Christ.

Old Testament Survey. A survey of all the Old Testament books, emphasizing their historic setting and thematic content. Each book is highlighted for its relationship to Christ and to its special contribution to the rest of Scripture.

New Testament Survey. A survey of all of the New Testament books, emphasizing their historical settings and thematic content. Each book is highlighted for its relationship to Christ and the Church and to its special contribution to the rest of Scripture.

Synoptic Gospels. The Gospels of Matthew, Mark, and Luke are the earliest surviving accounts of the life and ministry of Jesus. This course will provide a detailed examination of these texts, paying special attention to the distinctive portrait of Jesus that each gospel presents. Some topics of study will include (but are not limited to): various theories regarding the so-called "Synoptic Problem"; the relationship of the Synoptics to non-canonical texts; and a general introduction to critical methods in Gospel analysis such as literary, redaction, socio-historical, and tradition-critical.

Life of Christ/Gospels. A study of the life, ministry, miracles and teachings of the Jesus Christ taken from parallel gospel accounts.

Knowing the Doctrines of the Bible. Knowing the Doctrines of the Bible (Systematic Theology)" explains what the Bible teaches about God (Theology), Jesus (Christology), the Holy Spirit (Pneumatology), Humanity (Anthropology), Salvation (Soteriology), Grace vs Law, the Church (Ecclesiology), Church Leadership, the Baptism in the Holy Spirit, Healing, Angels (Angelology), the Enemy (Demonology), Christian Morals (Moral Theology), Prayer, Worship, Death (Thanatology), and the Second Coming (Eschatology)
